

LEADERSHIPdevelopment

After working with Culture Counts, I feel more connected with the people I manage, and more available to hear what they need and want. I have successfully altered our Team's focus from putting out fires to becoming a true problem-solving team. After years of overwhelm, I feel a new sense of inspiration for my work.

- Lowell Ensy,
Former Director, Littleton Public Schools

An exclusive opportunity for radical success

You're:

- A high level manager with a ton of potential
- Getting solid results but it's taking way too much effort
- Wanting to influence important organizational changes but frustrated by your lack of impact
- Building great relationships but experiencing more conflict than you'd like
- Convinced that you could do big things but wishing it all could be easier
- Energized to progress on your career path but not sure how to get there

You're hungry to:

- Tap your potential and elevate your influence
- Increase your credibility and impact
- Influence senior leadership with your perspective and voice
- Transform organizational issues you see undermining success
- Spend less time in the weeds and more time thinking strategically
- Motivate and inspire others, and build unprecedented teamwork
- Create great results with less friction and less stress
- Feel more confident and satisfied in all that you do

Are you willing to have all that you're hungry for?

The Breakthrough Leadership Program offers you the feedback, skills, tools, and experience to create a stunning new level of business and relationship results.

Participate in this ground breaking program and create a radical up-leveling of your leadership experience and expertise.
