

LEADERSHIPworkshops

“The Difficult Conversations workshop has given me the skills to interact with people all over the organization and resolve conflicts without getting sucked into drama and frustration. I get things done quickly while building better relationships.”

- Vincent DiPietro
VP, Finance
EffectiveUI

WORKSHOP DETAILS

$145 per participant

Location

Culture Counts Office
600 S. Cherry St. #305
Glendale, CO

Visit culturecounts.biz
for upcoming dates

Customized in-house programs are also available

Difficult Conversations: A Skills Workshop

In this extraordinary workshop, you will learn the skills to create breakthrough in relationship and results

By the end of the workshop, participants will have the tools to:

- Engage in healthy, honest and productive conversations
- Express authentically and with transparency
- Resolve core issues with high impact questions
- Reduce drama and defensiveness by listening powerfully
- Minimize static and tension by quickly identifying emotions
- Increase efficiency and clarity by making clear requests

Difficult Conversations is an engaging and inspiring workshop that creates a common language and framework to have thriving conversations.

We invite you to learn and integrate these skills to reduce your conflict, foster courage and grow your capacity to collaborate. As you integrate these skills, you'll discover you can accomplish great things, even as you stand in the storm of fast pace change.

About your Facilitator

Sarah combines 20 years of business experience with a facilitation style that is playful and accessible, making her trainings fun, practical and results driven. Having worked with a wide range of leaders from fortune 500 companies to small family owned firms, Sarah is committed to supporting leaders in building skills that create thriving cultures where people and businesses prosper.

For more information, or to register, contact:

Katie@culturecounts.biz
303.872.7926
